Some Busy Months Ahead Dinners of the Month and a Wine Trip!

We have some exciting events coming soon.

The March and April Dinners of the Month are at Nonna T's an Italian Restaurant in Mentor and Collision Bend Brewing Company in Euclid. And, get ready for a wine adventure in Canada!

On March 5th we'll visit Nonna T's. Nonna T's is a small excellent restaurant in Mentor. Due to its small size and intimate atmosphere, we'll be served family style. The menu includes salad, eggplant parm, choice of chicken parm or piccata, and for dessert, Tiramisu. Nonna herself may even visit with us adding a touch of family to this event. Space is limited so sign up at the next meeting. If you've not been there, prepare yourself for a real treat.

Nonna T's is a must! See Bob Mac to sign up. Only cash is accepted at Nonna T'. More information is available in the flyer on page 12.

April Dinner of the Month Collision Bend Brewing Company, Euclid

On April 2nd we'll visit Collision Bend Brewery at their Euclid production site. Collision Bend first opened in the Flats several years ago on Old River Road in the Hausheer Building. The Hausheer building was a chancellery that provided nautical good for ships during the Civil War. Several years ago, the building was transformed into a brewer later the brewing company expanded to Euclid. We'll visit the Euclid production brewery. The Master Brewer, Luke is no stranger to the industry. He was instrumental in the expansion of Cleveland's Great Lakes Brewery. So, we look forward to some great beer and good food. Bob Mac is your host. See the page 13 for details. Click here to learn more about Collision Bend Brewing Company. Bob Mac is your host for this event.

Onto Niagara-on-the-Lake Thursday, April 24th & Friday, 25th

At the end of April we'll take a trip to Niagara-on-the-Lake for a wine extravaganza. A weekday wine trip offers us a better value and smaller crowds at the wineries. The winery staff will be better able to work with our group.

We'll visit seven wineries. On Thursday we'll explore the Niagara Escarpment / Peninsula including Vineland Estate Winery, Ridge Point Winery, Kacaba Winery and AMO Estate Winery. Thursday night we'll stay at the Days Inn at Niagara Falls. The evening is on your own to visit the falls and dine at any of the fine restaurants in the area or visit the casino.

On Friday we'll visit the Niagara-on-the-Lake Region: Pillitteri Winery, Big Head Winery, and ICellars Estate. Lunch is provided for us at Silk's Country Kitchen. At the end of the day we'll travel home without a dinner stop.

All of these wineries do an excellent job on the tastings, have large selections of wines that are a good value to purchase/taste and have great gift shops.

Join us for this mid-week experience avoiding the weekend crowds. Your wine host is Dennis Rosa. For more information, please see the flyer on page 11.

Hi Rise Ski Club New Ohio Wine Information January 2025

By – Dennis Rosa

This past weekend we attended our Vino Wine Club meeting and tasted the latest Gold Medal Ohio Wines. The wine makers from Debonne Vineyards, South River, M Cellars, Cask 307, Salvage Winery, and Kosicek Vineyards each presented their award-winning wines. All were excellent but there were a few standouts.

- 1) Debonne Vineyards Chardonnay 2022 – Double Gold -GRV
- 2) South River Semillon 2023 – Double Gold – GRV
- 3) M-Cellars Pinot Gris 2023 – Gold – GRV
- 4) Cask 307 Red Blend – Gold – A
- 5) Salvage Winery Syrah – Gold – A
- 6) Kosicek Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon 2022 – Gold – A

GRV- are estate grown grapes from the Grand River Valley in Ohio, A- some American grapes from the United States, not from the Grand River Valley or Ohio.

I liked all the wines above, but the Debonne Chardonnay and the South River Semillon are real standouts. I would go for a taste at these wineries soon and then make your purchases. The Semillon is a special vintage in which the vintage only produced 1/3 the normal harvest and created a more intense fruity wine. The Chardonnay is well balanced and has complexity and is great alone or with food. If you taste these wines, let me know your tasting results. Another note: I was able to participate and help Kosicek Vineyards harvest their Vidal Blanc Ice Wine grapes in December and recently in January their Concord Ice Wine Grapes. In both cases the temperatures were below 17 degrees F. We started at 4AM on the Vidal and 5AM on the Concord grapes, about 2 hours each time, very cold but it was not windy, like the recent cold spell we just had. I heard the wines are doing well in a slow cool controlled fermentation. We were able to barrel taste their upcoming Kosicek Petite Syrahs- one in American Oak barrels and one in French Oak barrels. Both will be great wines, but they taste totally different. They should be bottled in the next few months. I will keep you posted. The grapes are from the most southern wine region in California, Temecula.

If you'd like to ski Holiday Valley but not drive yourself, here is your chance!

There is Still Room on the Steamboat Trip!

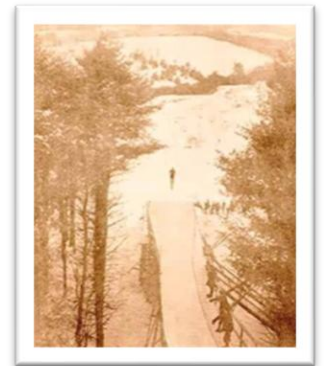

If you missed out on the Jackson Hole trip, there is space on the Steamboat Trip! But hurry time is running out and space is limited. BTW... Colorado was dumped on this week with record snow fall!

The Steamboat trip is from Saturday, March 15th to Saturday, March 21st. Call or text Bob Mac at (440) 662-1283 with questions.

Steamboat has a fascinating history. The town of Steamboat Springs originated from the hunting grounds of Native Americans to a French fur trappers. The first settler, James Crawford and his family arrived. With his encouragement businessmen came to the area to start a sawmill and the town began to grow.

Carl Howelsen arrived in 1914 who brought skiing to the areas in the form of ski jumping and a winter carnival. By the 1950's a ski area was established called Storm Mountain, now Mount Werner named after a former Olympian skier from the area. To learn more, click here.

According to Google Steamboat "The summit of Steamboat Mountain in Steamboat Springs, Colorado is 10,568 feet (3,221 meters) high. The base elevation of the ski resort is 6,900 feet (2,103 meters). Steamboat Mountain has 169 named trails, 18 lifts, and over 4.6 square miles of skiable terrain. The trail system is divided into 14% beginner, 42% intermediate, and 44% advanced trails. The longest run is over 3 miles long." And Steamboat covers six mountains including Mount Werner, Sunshine Peak, Storm Peak, Thunderhead Peak, Mahogany Ridge, and Christie Peak. We are staying in town at the Holiday Inn. See page 17.

Steamboat as well as Jackson Hole is part of the Ikon pass.

How did Corbet's Couloir get it Name?

Fifty-one Hi Risers are headed for Jackson Hole later this month. Many of you will venture up the mountain to see legendary Corbet's Couloir? Who will ski the twenty foot drop in an upside down funnel shape onto a wide ski run? The legendary run even has an annual celebration called the Kings and Queens of Corbet's Couloir. Nice, but how did it get its name?

In 1960 a Dartmouth college student named Barry Corbet was on a mountaineering tour of the mountain that later became Jackson Hole first described the couloir. His challenge to skiers was someday someone will ski this. Jackson Hole did not open for skiers for another six years in 1966. One year later someone did ski it but not Barry Corbet. Loni Ball first skied Corbet's Couloir, not Corbet himself! Corbet did ski it later but that date and story were not recorded. The couloir was later named after Barry Corbet who was a ski instructor and mountain guide at Jackson Hole.

Barry Corbet did not finish Dartmouth, instead, he took up residence in Jackson as a ski instructor and guide. More importantly, he was a filmmaker and writer. Barry was involved in a helicopter crash in 1968 leaving him a paraplegic. He was not deterred by his new circumstances, but helped others with documentaries and publishing a magazine, New Mobility, focused on sports for the physically challenged. Learn more about Corbet's life in his own words click Barry Corbet 1936- 2004 .

Thank you to Bob Maclauchlan, Dennis Rosa and Trish Carleton for your contributions to this month's newsletter. And, thanks to Bob and Dennis for their work on DOM, ski and wine trips.

A graphic where the words "thank you!" are written in a playful, multi-colored font. The letters are in shades of yellow, orange, red, and blue, with a slight shadow effect.
